The Primary Election. In less than three weeks-namely, on the 31 of next month-the Conservatives of Richmond will be called upon to choose five candidates for the House of Delegates, and to elect at the same time delegates to a convention which is to be held thereafter to nominate three candidates for the State Senate--two from this city and one from Hen-

The City Conservative Committee, yielding to what seems to be the demand of the the most remarkable men of our country, people, has decided that these elections shall be made by the voters themselves. Lands are so selling near Richmond. But why? Because the negroes ruin the value of farming lands. In the Valley land is as high as it is in Pennsylvania or New York where population is not more dense than in the Valley. General Schofield made a map blied, briday evening at 4:45 o'clock, at the residence of his father, GEORGE HENRY, infant son of E. and Annie Wassner; aged two years, one and colored it white or black, as the whites or blacks predominated in numbers. The prices of lands were indicated by the shades of the map-the more negroes the lower the price, and the more whites the higher.
